PENN STATE ENVIRONMENTAL LAW REVIEW

---

Abbreviate as PENN ST. ENVTL. L. REV.

---

The Penn State Environmental Law Review is published twice a year by the students of the Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University. The Journal seeks to publish materials discussing all aspects of environmental issues. In an effort to broaden the scope of the Journal, we are also interested in publishing articles discussing issues outside the traditional realm of environmental law, such as risk assessment, toxicology and epidemiology. Please note that views expressed in the Journal are the views of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policies or opinions of the Journal, its editorial board and staff members, or the Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University.

The editors of the Penn State Environmental Law Review encourage submission of unsolicited articles for future publication in the Journal. Interested authors should submit their manuscripts to the Articles Editor, Penn State Environmental Law Review, 150 South College Street, Carlisle, PA 17013. Unfortunately, the Journal cannot return submitted manuscripts unless a self-addressed, stamped envelope is also enclosed. Submissions should be typed and double-spaced. If submitting a work on diskette, please use the latest versions of WordPerfect or Microsoft Word.

Editor's Note to Librarians and Subscribers:

The Dickinson Journal of Environmental Law and Policy recently changed its name to the Penn State Environmental Law Review (PSELR). The name change will begin with this issue, Fall 2001, Volume 10, issue 1. In order to facilitate the name change, the Editorial Board of the Penn State Environmental Law Review reconfigured the journal's issue-numbering scheme. Penn State Environmental Law Review will continue to publish two issues per year; however, instead of publishing the first issue of each volume at the beginning of the calendar year, PSELR will publish the first issue of each volume at the beginning of the academic year. Thus, in the future, the first issue of each volume will be the Fall Edition. This adjustment does not change the number of issues produced and delivered under your subscription. Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience this change may cause.
