The Dickinson Journal of International Law is the successor to the Dickinson International Law Annual and therefore, Volume 2, Number 2 of the Dickinson Journal of International Law is paginated consecutively with the Dickinson International Law Annual, Volume 2, Number 1.

The Dickinson Journal of International Law seeks to publish materials representing meritorious viewpoints of legal issues of international concern. The editors encourage comments on and criticism of the Dickinson Journal of International Law. Views expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the policies or opinions of the Dickinson Journal of International Law, its editorial board and members, or The Dickinson School of Law.

The Dickinson Journal of International Law invites the submission of unsolicited manuscripts for future publication in the Journal. As a matter of policy, the Dickinson Journal of International Law encourages the use of gender neutral language in legal scholarship. Regretfully, manuscripts cannot be returned unless a self-addressed, postage-paid envelope is enclosed.
